

July 2010

Racers are you looking to get early season training with world class coaching in the beautiful Rocky Mountains? Ausblick annual Thanksgiving Camp offers you this and much more. The venue is Copper Mountain a top quality resort with challenging terrain, top notch lodging, shopping and restaurants all within walking distance from your condo. The training is 6 days of drills, running gates and video with coaches from Ausblick and around the world. The camp is open to all racers with 1 year of racing experience at any age.

The Thanksgiving Copper Camp is not only a great training opportunity it's a fun week with family and friends.

For more information on the camp please contact Randy Bourdo at rbourdo@ausblickskiraceteam.com.

